

If you are receiving by-pass notices from the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC), please be advised that if the creditor/party, which was by-passed, has a CR before their name you can disregard the notice. Any other by-pass notice should be returned to the clerk's office with an updated address. The clerk's office will edit the information in the case management system so the party will receive future notices.