

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE :
Electronic Proof of Claim System (ePOC) : MISC. NO. 5-14-mp-00003
: (District Wide)

ORDER

WHEREAS the Court is implementing an Electronic Proof of Claim (ePOC) system that permits the electronic filing of claims, amending a proof of claim, and withdrawing a proof of claim without requiring a login into the Court’s Electronic Filing System (CM/ECF),

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that notwithstanding the requirements of Local Rule 5005-4, Administrative Order Misc. Nos. 5-05-mp-50007, 5-04-mp-50007, 5-04-mp-50003, and/or 5-04-mp-50010, proofs of claims may be filed, amended and/or withdrawn through the ePOC system and without the need to register or login as a user in CM/ECF.

Any claims filed, amended and/or withdrawn electronically through the court’s ePOC system shall constitute the filer’s approved signature and have the same force and effect as if the individual signed a paper copy of the proof(s) of claim form, amendment or withdrawal.

With respect to all filings other than those stated herein, the provisions of the aforementioned Rules and Orders remain in full force and effect.

By the Court,

Chief Bankruptcy Judge

By the Court,

John J. Thomas, Bankruptcy Judge
